Copeland's Inaugural Meeting Hailed As A Smashing Success

Sacramento, CA, July 2, 2004 – A new era began for the members of the Rotary Club of Point West at precisely 7:15 a.m. PST. New Club President Mark Copeland started off the meeting with a nod to his predecessor Drew Houghton by playing some of that annoying music which led off each of Drew's "Rock 'n Roll" Rotary meetings. The nod came to a crashing end as President Mark smashed the music player with a sledgehammer, much to the amazement and wild cheering of the assembly.

With that bold and decisive move Mark Copeland began his term as the 20th president of the Rotary Club of Point West – Sacramento (a.k.a. "Point West Rotary" or "PWR").

In keeping with all Rotary Clubs in the United States, the members pledged allegiance to the flag led by Dave Mrizek and sang a rousing rendition of America orchestrated by maestro Guy Heilman.

Next up, PWR members were "blessed" be the presence of the "Reverend" Bruce Levering. Following a brief yet serious invocation the "Reverend" lightened the mood with his pat-

The BIG BANG Theory by Cary Okumura

Point West Rotarians were responsible for an explosive Independence Day celebration around the Sacramento region. Thanks to everyone who helped out with this year's Fireworks Booth the kids in Sacramento had a blast this past Sunday night.

The fireworks booth is an important fund-raising vehicle for our Club. Thanks again to all who were able to lend a hand!

Second in line of the day's Past President Parade was Dave "Hizzonor" Abbott. In recognition of Independence Day Judge Dave gave a special reading of Patrick Henry's stirring speech to the Second Virginia Convention in Richmond, VA on March 23, 1775 in which he uttered the now famous phrase, "give me liberty or give me death." Through the ages the eloquence and passion of Mr. Henry's words still stir the hearts and minds of patriotic Americans and lovers of freedom everywhere.

President Mark then went about the room asking for introductions of guests, of whom there were many. Among those in attendance were District 5180 Director Steve Lemmon and current Arden-Arcade Rotary President Howard Stagg.

Mark took the opportunity to recognize his boss Rick Wiedner and several fellow co-workers for their support while he negotiates the challenges of his presidency during the coming year.

Before the introductions were complete President Mark received "bellingers" from Dan Kohl, Past President of the Rotary Club of Sacramento and Del Countess who was celebrating the final payment on his daughter's UCLA tuition.

Finally, President Mark acknowledged those seated at the Head Table – Charlene Drabant (PWR Rotarian of the Year), President Elect John Koogle, and Past Presidents Drew Houghton and Sandra Thompson. Again, the parade of past presidents continues...

Upon introducing himself as "your President for the Centennial Term", President Mark shared his "theme" for the term. After great deliberation and discussion among the lawyers in the club Mark declared his theme as "Great People Doing Extraordinary Things". Mark's original choice of theme was "Just Do It" but when the lawyers got involved it was deemed a non-started and a committee of these lawyers decided GPDET was the way to go. By contrast Rotary International's theme this year is "Celebrate Rotary." President Mark went further explaining the club's goals for the next year and introducing some of the club's new officers (please see the left column on page one of the newsletter for a complete listing of the cast of characters.) Very ambitious bunch of lads and lasses though fortunately the number one goal is “Have Fun!” Something we can all certainly wrap our brains around.

And speaking of wrapping brains...next up was past president Todd Murray who presented a clever yet thoughtful proclamation, or “Presidential Citation” to immediate past prez Drew Houghton. Very nicely done and (if we are to believe the hype) this is to be a regular occurrence by Todd Murray and Tom Knox. Pity the poor recipients of this award!

A bit of sad news slipped into an otherwise joyous occasion as Charlene Drabant reported that PWR Charter Member Gino Corti's wife Angie passed away. Charlene and Dick Prater visited with Gino and reported that he is doing well but asked that we keep Angie and Gino in your thoughts and prayers. Charlene indicated that per Angie's wishes there will be no service.

Coach Monte Watson reported that the PWR softball team played its best defense of the season in holding the East Sac Rotary team to just 5 runs. Unfortunately, for PWR's sluggers the East Sac Rotary team had an even better defensive game and held PWR to only 4 runs. But not to worry, the post game pizza and beer were both winners!

Past president Tom Slagle amused us with a brief post demotion party announcement about “Drew's Last Ryde”.

Seems a good time was had by all, though Drew's memories appear fuzzy and there are apparently pay-per-view photos on the internet that illustrate how much fun he had dancing to the J-Rollerz.

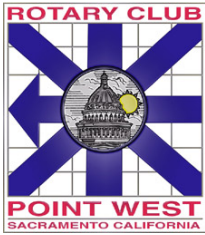

Rounding out President Mark's first meeting was a slide show presentation which could have been called “Travels with Mark and Kathy.” While not exactly, Arthur Frommer or Rick Steves, Mark did have a few pointers for those wishing to travel to Japan. Mark, Kathy and several other Point West Rotarians who made the trek to Osaka, Japan for the International Rotary Convention reportedly had quite an interesting time.

Also, in this slide show was evidence of the wackiness that occurred at Drew's Demotion Party. Tom Slagle is providing the photos along with the negatives for a very modest price to anyone who wishes to purchase them.

President Mark made two more quick announcements – “Rotary Day” at the Rivercats will be on August 1st. Call Mark if interested in attending. This is a District 5180 event and all proceeds will benefit Polio Plus. Second, the Sacramento Rotary Club will host “The Road to Athens” luncheon next Thursday at the Convention Center. Call 443-1433 for tickets.

Russ Fujii won the raffle and went home with $67 in his pocket.

Meeting adjourned at 8:19.
